Lawyers strike deal at Stanhope hearing

After five days of listening to evidence on Stanhope Township's controversial zoning bylaw, the Ontario Municipal Board came to a decision at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Though the judgement on the bylaw has not yet been made public, (it will be "forwarded to council in the future"), it is known that the Board accepted an agreement struck by lawyers representing the three largest groups being heard. They include Stanhope Township, the Concerned Citizens of Hall's Lake and Dr. Offen, a landowner who wants to establish a tent trailer park on land adjacent to Hall's Lake.

The board also ruled that the $5,000 cost of a water quality study ordered by the Concerned Citizens will be shared by the municipality, which will pay $2,000, Dr. Offen who will pay $2,000 as well and the Citizens' group, who will pay the remainder.

According to Councillor Jock Mavor, Stanhope Council has not yet come to any conclusions on the Board's ruling.

Councillor Ann Barker who attended the hearings as an observer, says she thinks council will not be unhappy with the ruling. Though council did agree to Dr. Offen's trailer park, the Board decided against it - the zoning bylaw in essence, was not touched.

Over the five days of the hearings, the Board first heard an explanation of the zoning plan from the municipal planner John McDermott. After the explanation, individual complainants took the stand to offer their testimony as evidence against the bylaw.

Many of the differences were resolved when complaining residents learned how the zoning law affected their property. One member of the community at the hearing, Kirkwood Gibbon, took the stand simply to ask the meaning of two zoning designation used in the bylaw.

Another man, Mr. Faverau, son-in-law of a cottage owner, interrupted proceedings so many times on Thursday, the chairman threatened to discipline him. Mr. Faverau spoke at length a number of times, but was never able to make clear his position on the bylaw, though he did seem to imply he was against the establishment of a trailer park on the Offen property.

When it came to his turn to take the stand, Mr. Parkingham, the lawyer for the Concerned Citizens attempted to establish that the township's zoning plan is 'incomplete and badly done. While the Board seemed to accept a good part of this argument, it was tough in its cross-examination of the planning consultant, David Barber, who gave evidence for the Concerned Citizens.

One big point the Board made was that neither the municipal planner nor the planner for the Concerned Citizen's knew for certain how large the Offen property is, one saying is in ten acres and the other that it is twelve acres.

The zoning bylaw was introduced in 1982 after the Ontario Government pressed all its municipalities to produce plans for future development.

The Ontario Municipal Board was called in to arbitrate when Stanhope Council was unable to resolve various disputes of township residents over the bylaw enacting the zoning plan.

New store ready to open

After several years of planning and months of building, the new Dollo's I.G.A. food store is about to open. The new building, located at the corner of Main Street and Highway 35, will be officially opened, with all the attendant fanfare, Thursday morning at 9 a.m.

The opening marks one of a number of milestones in the history of the Dollo family and the grocery business in Minden. From a small fruit stand on the community's main street, the company has grown and expanded with the village, operating out of several locations.

This move is the just the latest in this progression and ensures their position as one of the major grocer retailers in the Haliburton Highlands.

The new facility is more than a matter of a different location. The store is a modern, up to date retail outlet which provides a pleasant shopping environment. Increased shelf space will mean the store can provide a greater selection of products for area shoppers.

The new store features an in-store delicatessen which will offer freshly sliced meat, cheeses, salads and more. An in-store bakery will provide fresh baked goods on a daily basis, including breads, cakes, desserts and other specialities.

(more on page 12)

Surrounded by stock destined for the shelves at the new Dollo's IGA store, Michael Wray, Sean Vick and Perry Peacock at rear, were three of many staff who worked through the weekend to prepare Minden's newest commercial enterprise.

Association concerned about development

Members of the Mountain Lake Property Owners' Association are concerned about increased commercial development on the Minden by-pass. The group, which gathered for its annual meeting Saturday at the Wild Water Preserve training centre, passed a formal resolution to express its concern with the situation.

The resolution calls on the Anson, Hindon and Minden council to react to the development along the highway. Members of the association quizzed Deputy Reeve Bern Berry on the matter. Various members described the growth as "deplorable planning" and predicted that if left unchecked, "you'll be left with derelict buildings in the downtown..." The deputy reeve commented that the development represented increased investment in the municipality and that it was likely to continue.

The membership also pressed the council representative on why the area does not provide garbage pick-up service. Mr. Berry noted that private contractors are available to provide the service. He pointed out if the municipality began collecting garbage, the cost of the services would be reflected in increased taxes.

Berry noted that the council had been able to hold the 1986 taxes to a 5% increase. He also pointed out that 62¢ of every tax dollar collected in the municipality is used to support educational services. "We have tried, at the county level, to increase the provincial assistance for education, but have as yet, been unsuccessful."

The property owners also expressed their concern over the number of field advertising signs which line the highways in the Highlands. It was suggested that something should be done to restrict them.

The meeting was also addressed by Jean Anthon, the president of Ontario Cottager's Association (FOCA). She told the gathering FOCA is currently dealing with a number of concerns to cottagers province-wide. She noted that acid rain is an ongoing concern.

She told the meeting, the FOCA has made representation to the provincial government concerning the licensing of boaters and it appears the law will now apply to boats over 60 feet in length. Anthon said she was pleased with the provincial government's announced intention to crack down on drinking boaters.

The provincial association is also lobbying the government to ease the regulations covering the transfer of the 66 foot shore allowance to adjacent property owners. Representation is also being made with regard to municipal elections. FOCA is requesting that at least two advance polls be held and that the possibility of a mail-in ballot be explored. The possibility of holding the vote on Sundays is also being considered.

Members of the Mountain Lake Association also heard from Jamie Delanie, a representative from the Ministry of the Environment. MOE will be checking septic facilities at cottages on the lake to determine which are operating properly and which need attention. Delanie explained the details of the process and advised the members that the effort was being done to protect the quality of the lake water. All in attendance endorsed the effort.

Before the meeting closed, a new executive was chosen for the coming year.

Derwent Lewis announced he would be stepping down as president of the association. Acclaimed to office were president Colleen Deval, vice president Mike Mahoney, treasurer Jim Russell. The position of secretary has yet to be filled.

County artists take top honours

Two county artists have won the coveted "Best of the Show" award at the 1986 edition of the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts Exhibition and Sale. David Risk of Haliburton, a wildlife artist, and Vicki Cross of Minden, a weaver, shared the Thilde Nevitt Award of $100 each and the honour of having their pieces selected as the top pieces of the many on display at the exhibition.

The award is named in honour of a longtime supporter of the exhibition and sale, Thilde Nevitt, and will be presented for five years. Judges were given the option of awarding a single $200 prize or two individual prizes of $100 each.

David Risk, a well-known artist in the Highlands, was awarded the citation for his pen and ink rendering of a Cottontail Rabbit. The entry also won him first prize in a second category, wildlife in any medium. This category is sponsored by writer R.D. Lawrence.

Vicki Cross, from Minden, won her best of the show citation for her transparency, Pine Tree. The hanging is a white on white weaving in which the image appears and disappears, depending on the angle of viewing. The entry also won the best weaving award for wall hangings or floor coverings.

The awards were announced Friday evening. Along with the presentation of the best of the show awards, prizes were given in a number of categories, including:

- Weaving, garment: first Betty Elder of Don Mills and second Lucy Slykerman of Haliburton. The awards were sponsored by Romni Wools.

- Knitting, garments: Catherine Green of Kirkfield. The award is sponsored by Blair Sand and Gravel.

President of the Guild, Joan Hoad, was the master of ceremonies for the opening. Toronto Star craft columnist Ankaret Dean, had been invited to officially open the exhibition. She praised the efforts of the Guild and the Highlands

Accent the positive

The Ontario Provincial Police are out to get you, and we're glad they are.

In addition to their duties as upholders of provincial highway statutes (among others), the Minden detachment has announced it will be searching out, and rewarding, drivers who got out of their way to be courteous, careful and helpful on county roads and highways.

The summer program recognizes it is as important to encourage good driving habits as it is to punish those who violate the law. Obeying the law should be a reward in itself and it usually is, with a safe trip being the ultimate return. However, this latest program will offer that extra bit of encouragement to help make this one of the safest summers ever.

Congratulations

The new grocery store which opens tomorrow is the largest project undertaken in the Minden business community this year, it also serves as an example of the strong growth and healthy economy the area has been enjoying. One need not look far to find a business new to our community or a building recently added to the commercial inventory.

All these additions bode well for the future of the village economy and the county in general.

Hopefully the recent positive surge will continue spurring further economic growth.

Editor:

Glad to see you back in your funny world. I just thought I would write and try to get the Stanhope Council stirred up again after they felt that the $30.00 cost to dig up some tax information for me was going to break their bank. They did give me the information I wanted, however, without charge to me at the time. But my taxes did jump again, by gosh, and more than double the cost of living too.

It is really amazing that not more cottagers would get riled up about the taxes that we pay, for absolutely nothing. No roads (but not in all cases, that I concede), no sewage system, no water system, no garbage pickup (but the odd dump site that one must hunt for when one buys a cottage) and a volunteer fire department that can not reach a fire until it is too late. (And I do not mean to demean the fire department. They are dedicated and work when there is a fire).

The cottager can not make use of the school system that takes up most of the taxes paid and it is this system of taxation that probably angers me the most. I have written to Robert Nixon about this form of taxation and he simply says that the matter is being reviewed.

I am attaching the letter I received from Stanhope Township clerk, Gerald Bain dated February 13, 1986 with the tax information on it that I requested. It is interesting and I hope that now that summer is here more cottagers will read the paper and see what they are paying. That is, if you can allow enough of a spread in your paper to cover the issue.

When one figures that number of properties, etc. as shown for the 1985 tax levy, which were calculated from the 1984 tax levy, one can see that the "Residential Seasonal" pays 54.8% of the Township taxes. Then the reader can see that the vacant residential lands pay 27.8% of the taxes for a total of 82.6% of the taxes. All business and commercial properties pay 1.5% while farm properties pay about 2%. The "Residential Permanent" pays 13.3%. The other classifications pay the remaining percentage.

Now, the interesting facts are not available to me. The interesting facts being, of the 82% of the "Seasonal Residential" paying taxes, just how many of those cottagers, and I am assuming they are all cottagers, receive any more service from their tax dollars than what I am complaining about? How many of these cottagers have a county road into their lake? How many of them have garbage pickup? How many have sewer and water services? What do they get for their money?

Well, Jack, I may have sealed my fate with the Township by writing and showing your readers who pays the taxes in Stanhope Township and who gets the money. But does the Township of Stanhope ever stop and say whoa to more expenditures each year? Of do they see a broader tax base as new cottages are built as a means to spend more money?

I am only picking on one township and that is not fair. All of them are the same. Look at what is spent each year and for what? Give some money to this group to level the snow for their snowmobiles, give some money to that group for a picnic, etc., etc.

Well, my next letter to the Township will be ask them for a few truckloads of gravel to help replace the road that got washed away on the day of the tornado. I'm sure that the township will agree that the cost of two truckloads, or maybe three, will not break their budget. You will know before I do. You or someone on your staff attends their meetings. I'll probably read about it in the paper. Of course, we the taxpayers on Peach Lake won't expect the Township to spread the gravel. We will pay someone with a grader to do that. But if they supply the gravel, we won't have to pay "extra taxes" for at least part of our road. I'm sure 20 cottagers should get "something for nothing". Or am I living in another world?

Maurice Woods,
Peach Lake.

Editor:

Further to my letter of last issue, a few more thanks are in order at this point in time (3 weeks since T-Day). First, I would like to thank your paper, The Times, for the use of the supplement, "This Week in the Highlands" and the booklet "Minden and Area '86" which have given me much needed info in the past and especially this spring and summer.

Thanks again to Merrill Barry and the boys, Ken, Ron, Troy, Tom and Terry, who still amaze and scare me as I watch them work with skidders, chainsaws and large logging trucks, to Bill Simmerson and his men, without whose help last week, we could have lost our main building, as it was still shifting off its piers, to Jim Winn of Bell Canada who re-installed one phone which is so important in case of emergency, and the many others who have helped in various ways. These hard-working people have had to contend with many things such as windy weather, curious and interested sight-seers, many of whom don't understand the dangers of wandering at will around the campsite where some buildings are still shifting and even the ground is still settling from the effects of T-Day.

Anyway, here it is three weeks - 21 days since, (I'm writing this on Monday) and with a lot of hard work by a large group of positive thinking, dedicated and caring, local and not so local people, such as our 2nd year camp director Jo, past and present senior staff and counsellors who arrived from all over to help because Camp Towhee is like a second home to some and they didn't want to disappoint our campers, 60 young eager campers will arrive July 14 rather than July 7, only 1 week later, at Camp Towhee 1986, c o Camp Kandalore on Peach Lake in Stanhope Township rather than Camp Towhee on Hurricane Lake in Guilford Township.

The location is a bit different (an understatement) but our excellent staff of approximately the same number can and will adapt

Ringside rasslin' wrap-up

by Chris Haslett

"Why don't you stay out and wrestle the bear?"
"Me?"
"You."

An enticing mixture of playfulness and coercion, the promoter's voice over the loudspeaker made the prospect of finally leaving the ring, to this obscure wrestler, an unlikely one.

Bag o' Bones had previously lost to a midget named Little "T" which proved there is justice after all.

Like many bears, Gentle Ben did not seem to attack until provoked. Bag o' Bones lost, along with an audience member recruited by the promoter to put down the animal, and justice was irrevocably entrenched.

Also losing, by the unanimous decisions of an invisible panel of judges, were Jet the Body Star, Hungarian Wolfman and Sheena the Voodoo Queen.

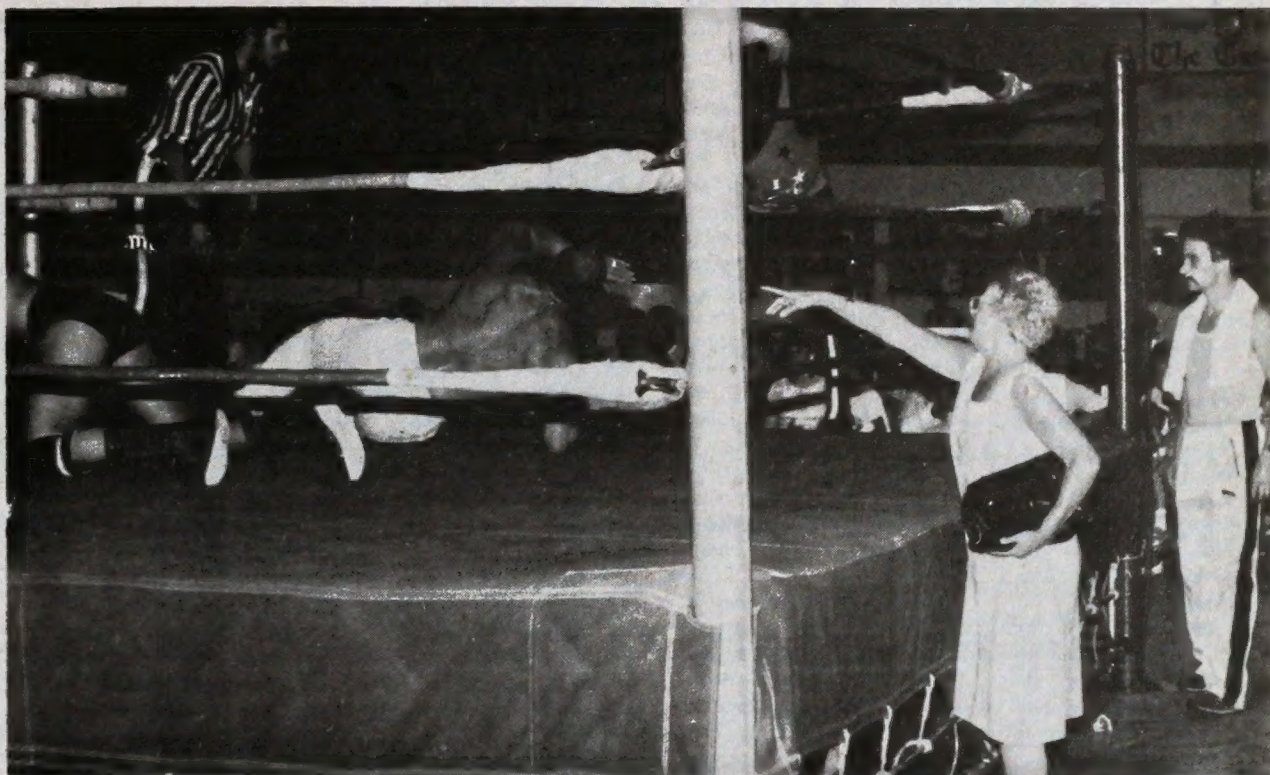

Sheena fought an evenhanded match with Silver Rose of Buffalo, New York, but Silver rallied at the end and the judges sent Sheena back to the jungles of Africa.

As for understanding just how Big Time Wrestling works, audience demand seems to be the key. The fancy footwork and lily-livered jabs put out at first by the Wolfman and Ricky Dawson were notoriously unpopular. As was a doomed plea overheard as Sheena briefly ruled the ring: "Don't rush me, I'm taking a walk."

Sweet Daddy Siki, Angelo Mosca Jr., Ben. For many folks it was a chance to meet and see the veterans of Big Time Wrestling. For the young, a chance perhaps to measure up to a midget not much taller than themselves.

Fighting is catching. Although the official results of the cyclone tag team match were lost in the general upheaval it gave rise to (four wrestlers became five as the referee was attacked and soon afterward left cold, then six when a kind, grandmotherly type proved it's all just a label), one conclusion was clear:

Those who missed Saturday's match are no less well educated in the rules of wrestling. They did miss the best entertainment of the year.

A British grandmother directs. Ivy Eldon gave the audience their money's worth, but satisfaction was not diminished by the efforts of scheduled wrestlers.

Beyond reach of the referee, the Hungarian Wolfman seemed to exude new confidence.

The blackest hour: Jet the Body Star.

Sheena made a spectacular entrance.

Real estate office brings new approach

The official opening of the two Re/Max offices in the Haliburton Highlands marked the introduction of a new concept in selling real estate for this area.

The opening took place Wednesday at the Re/Max office in Minden although the facilities in this community and in Haliburton have been open for a number of months.

The local franchise is owned by three partners, Norm Harrison of Minden, Keith Hill of Ingoldsby and Peter Epps of Haliburton. All are experienced real estate sales individuals who have either worked for other real estate offices in the county or operated their own agency.

The Re/Max method of dealing with participating agents is what makes this agency a different enterprise in the highly competitive real estate market. Re/Max operates on what is called the 100% commission concept. Under this system, agents retain 100% of the conventional commission earned when a property is sold. However, to be a part of a Re/Max office, an agent must agree to pay a monthly fee to cover the cost of the office's operation. In addition, the individual agents are responsible for their own advertising expenses, phone costs and other expenses that in other agencies may be covered by the parent company. The fees are collected on a monthly basis whether the salesman makes any sales at all, or even if he or she is not active.

In a conventional real estate office, many of these costs are absorbed by the agency under which the salesman is working. However, to cover these expenses the agents are required to, for example, split their commission with the broker.

According to information provided by the local office, the Re/Max approach puts a great deal more responsibility on the sales representative who acts much as an independent business person. The fact that the monthly fee of approximately $1000 must be paid provides an incentive to remain active. The literature points out that the Re/Max offices seek experienced real estate sales people.

The Re/Max approach is not new to the real estate field. It has been tried in a number of variations in both Canada and the United States with limited success. However, two Denver, Colorado real estate sales people were able to refine the approach until the company has become one of the leading names in the real estate industry. A report of the Financial Post top 500 companies in Canada lists Re/Max as number two in the real estate sector in 1985, behind the leader Royal LePage. In 1984 Re/Max was number four in the sector, number six a year earlier, seventh in 1982 and not listed at all in 1981.

Interestingly, the Ontario region is one of the fastest growing Re/Max territories in North America. The local offices are part of that growth pattern.

The franchise must pay a fee to the holder of the regional rights to the name, with a portion of these fees

Members of the Haliburton Highlands Re/Max sales staff include, from the left, seated, Lenore Pristol, Minden office administrator Cathy Howe, Marg Harrison; standing, Norm Harrison, Bill Smith, Ted Vasey, Keith Hill and Henry Pristol. going to the company's head office. From these monies the company provides the national advertising campaigns which provide the local agencies with widespread exposure for the Re/Max name. Part of the Re/Max logo, the hot air balloon, also plays a part in promoting the company name. There are ten balloons in use across the continent.

Norm Harrison comments that once the name becomes known in the area, the offices here will be contributing to that growth. He is confident this new approach to dealing with agents, something which the public need not even be aware of, will ensure the success of the Re/Max name in the Highlands.

to the change and who knows, perhaps, no not perhaps, I'm sure we will have an even better camp experience and the 1986 Camp Towhee staff and campers will become a close-knit group as usual and Camp Towhee will be rebuilt bigger and better and a lot safer from the unpredictable weather of the 1980's.

Thousands of former Sherwood Forest campers

and staff may not realize that the focus of recent tornado devastation on Big Boshkung Lake, Haliburton, was their former summer campground. The Tent Line, Pine Point, Indian Council Ring look like a bomb site. Of the great forest and trails from lake and bay to the playing field and around it, scarcely a tree is left standing.

The cottagers on the shore fringe who have suffered in some cases the loss of their buildings are, of course, responsible for their own building. But the entire group is unanimous in banding together for a truly colossal task: having the acres of debris cleared and replanting the forest.

Any help, either of a practical nature or financial contribution to speed this work will be greatly appreciated.

Towhee prepares for campers next Thursday

Staff and children who have attended Camp Towhee in past years will be able to go again this summer, although not at the camp's devastated property on Hurricane Lake.

Camp Towhee has accepted an offer from Camp Kandalore to relocate at their property while the Hurricane Lake site, which was hit by a tornado on June 16, is rebuilt. According to Camp Towhee director, Joanne Jordan, the camp's 60 children will share dining and recreation facilities with Camp Kandalore and stay in a section of cabins being rented out to Towhee.

Camp Towhee's convening date of July 14 is only one week late. Ms. Jordan explained. Insurance will cover most of the damage at Hurricane Lake and rebuilding work will begin after all the debris is cleared out. Many buildings need either replacement or repositioning on the foundations.

Camp Towhee hopes to move back to Hurricane Lake by next summer. Ms. Jordan expressed gratitude to Camp White Pine and Camp Kilcoo for beds, shelving and supplies donated.

Free seniors camping

- by John Eakins, MPP -

A recent announcement by the Minister of Natural Resources represents good news for our Senior Citizens.

My colleague, the Honourable Vince Kerrio, announced earlier this month that senior citizens will pay no charge to camp during the week in Ontario's provincial parks this summer. This new rate reduction began on June 9 and means senior citizens will pay half the regular camping fees on Fridays and Saturdays and no charge from Sunday to Thursday.

This is a decision that I have received a number of letters on during the past, and an idea I have supported. Senior citizens have traditionally paid full camping fees on weekends and no camping fees during the week. Earlier this year, my colleague announced that camping fees for seniors were changed to half rate all week. I am sure that this further reduction for 1986 will be welcomed by many seniors.

Refrigerators

While this represents good news for campers, cottagers should take precautions to ensure safety in their vacation homes. Last summer three persons died in Ontario as a result of carbon monoxide fumes from malfunctioning propane refrigerators.

A propane refrigerator with a blocked flue passage or an improperly adjusted or partially plugged burner can produce carbon monoxide in deadly quantities.

The Ontario Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations warns that for safe operation, you should have your propane refrigerator serviced at the beginning of each season to ensure that the flue passage and burner are clean. The burner must also be cleaned immediately after the refrigerator has been moved any distance, to ensure that no deposits have been dislodged from the flue and burner. In addition, the Ministry advises that cleaning and servicing should be done by a certified propane fitter who is familiar with this type of appliance.

Roads

Good roads are important to cottagers, campers, and others who visit our area. I am, therefore pleased, that road improvements will take place on both Highway 35, near Rosedale, and Highway 505 north of Highway 48.

Tenders are being called for grading and other work on Highway 35 from Rosedale northerly to 0.8 kilometres south of Highway 48, and from Cobocok for 7 kilometres. In addition, 2.4 kilometres of Highway 505 near Victoria Road will be upgraded beginning this month.

Denna Lake Association meets

The Denna Lake Cottagers Association meeting was held July 6 at the cottage of Norm Gemmell. Many interesting facts were brought forth, on Neighbourhood Watch by Constable Mike Maybee, of the Minden O.P.P.

The President of "Federation of Cottagers Association of Ontario", Jean Anton, spoke of the assistance and help the Federation gives to all cottagers in matters of acid rain, pollution, etc.

The president, Norm Gemmell, then chaired the meeting. Reports on water testing, lake level, were given. A motion to join the Federation of Cottagers Association was passed!

Rick Sullivan suggested that associate members be allowed, being adult children of cottage owners, with certain voting privileges, by the discretion of the executive. This was passed unanimously.

A golf tournament is planned for a date to be announced. A Regatta is set for August holiday weekend.

The new executive for a 2 year term is: Secretary - Pat Bradburn; Treasurer - Fran Falls; Social Convener - Daisy Downs; Water testing - Doris Hildreth; Water level - John McIsaac; Neighbourhood Watch - Bob Elston; President - Norm Gemmell; Vice President - Russ King. Both President and Vice President stood for a second term.

Business briefs

Minden will soon have a new lighting shop. Lowes Lighting will be located in the Valu-Mart mall.

Richard and Nancy Lowe will be managing the outlet which will feature retail lighting supplies, chandeliers, lighting accessories, fans, and outdoor lighting. As lighting experts they will also be available for consultation.

The Lowe's are not new to the lighting business, having operated Lighting Unlimited store in a southern community. Nancy's family is from this area, she's related to the Russells and Welchs and have been visiting this area for many years. Having enjoyed the Highlands for so many years, they decided to move here permanently.

The store, which will be open six days a week, is currently undergoing major renovations in anticipation of a midsummer opening.

Hustlers trounce Lindsay

The Minden Rockcliffe Hustlers pounded out 15 hits as they soundly defeated Lindsay York Tavern by the score of 11 - 2.

The locals got started off right in the first inning as Greg Newell singled, Rick Hartwick and Jack Snell doubled, Brian Shaw tripled and Dave Hartwick slammed a home run for a quick 5 - 0 lead, they added three more runs in the second inning on another double by Rick Hartwick and singles by Snell, Shaw and Kevin Smith.

In the sixth they added three more runs on three singles and a double.

York Tavern finally got on the scoreboard in the seventh inning for two runs to save being skunked.

Jack Snell was the winning pitcher tossing a six hitter, he also helped his own cause with a perfect night at the plate, 2 doubles and two singles. Brian Shaw had a triple and two singles and Dave Hartwick added a double to go along with his home run.

This week the Hustlers will entertain the Woodville Merchants Thursday night at 8:00 p.m. and will travel to Harcourt this weekend for the annual Harcourt Ball Tournament. Their first game is at 1:30 p.m. Saturday for anyone interested in making the trip.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED

Organizers of the sixth annual M.R. Airlines International Open golf tournament, chairman Al Day, left, president Joe Enfield, Beaverbrook Golf Club owner Dave Stevens and Minden Fire Chief Don Booth, pose beside trophies for the event. The annual match will take place on July 16 and 17 and presentations will be made at a wine and cheese party after the final round. Local businesses will be asked to sponsor each of the holes on the course and all proceeds will go to the Minden Fire Department equipment fund. Dave Stevens was the first businessman to sponsor one of the holes.

Historic photos dot the walls

Throughout the store, shopper will find gleaming banks of refrigeration and freezer display cases, while the produce section is increased in size and pleasingly laid out. The expanded meat department offers a greater selection and easier access for busy shoppers. The aisles through the grocery sections are wide and brightly lit.

One of the highlights of the new store is bound to be the selection of historic photographs which have been enlarged to more than double poster size. Mounted on the walls, the giant photographs show interesting scenes from the early days of Minden, depicting life in the pioneer community and the hard-working citizens who first settled here. A key to the photographs will be mounted at eye level so viewers can determine what is being portrayed. However, it is likely that lively discussions will result as long-time residents identify the individuals in the photographs or the scenes.

The facility is completely air conditioned and has been equipped with the latest in modern grocery store equipment.

The last few days have been rather hectic for store owners Peter and Dave Dollo. This father and son team, along with their wives Chris and Diane respectively, have been working from early hours to late at night, assisting staff and advising contractors rushing to complete the installation of the equipment.

The old store closed Saturday evening at 6 p.m. Before the last customer was through the till, the rush to relocate to the new premises was underway. Trucks and staff shuttled back and forth from the old store to the new location transferring goods and material. This carried on long into Saturday night, with employees working Sunday and the first three days of this week to prepare for the Thursday opening. (The store has been closed Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week to allow for final preparations before the opening.)

It has been a tiring few months for the partners, but now they are looking forward to the opening. In the past few weeks in particular both Pete and Dave have started to see their plan of a new grocery store for Minden finally become a reality. It has been a lot of work, but judging by the results evident in the new facility, it has been well worth it.

HONDA RIDING MOWER

HONDA MADE IT THE HARD WAY: YARD BY YARD.

Every inch of it on the ground. And we've put all the experience we've gained over thousands of yards into Honda's new HTR3009 riding mower. Smaller and more economical than a lawn tractor, its 30 inch cutting deck means it's more efficient for large lots than a walk-behind mower. An 8.5 horsepower four-stroke engine provides greatly reduced fuel consumption. A reduction you can see with a quick glance at the see-through gas tank. And there's also a special safety switch so the blades won't turn and the mower won't move unless you're in the driver's seat. If you have a big yard to cut, put your behind on Honda's new HTR3009 riding mower. And put a big job behind you.

Standing beneath the outstretched arm of a power shovel, Peter and David Dollo watch as the first load of soil is removed for the foundation of the new store in December of last year.

The partially completed frame of the Dollo's IGA store reveals the shape and form of the new building. This photograph was taken in April.

Forty years of service

By the end of the slowest day on record at his Minden grocery business, Pete Dollo had managed to slip a grand total of $18 into the cash register.

"That was the winter of '47," Dollo explains. "I had just come out of the army after fighting in the Second World War, and my brother and I had opened a fruit and vegetable store in what is now Cub Concybeare's butcher shop. The snow was so heavy that year that the bakery had to have yeast air-dropped into a nearby field so it could make bread for the village."

Things have changed since then. Snow removal methods have improved, the population of Haliburton County has risen and Pete Dollo, now in partnership with his son David, is about to open a brand new IGA store on Highway 35 just outside the village.

"Some customers will spend about $180 on a single order at our new store," says Dollo. "We employ more than 40 people and we have five check-out counters with room for a sixth, if we need it."

The new store is bright and modern and both partners are proud of their accomplishment, though Dave is careful to point out that it is the end result of a lot of hard work from a lot of people. It's also the most recent in a succession of three locations for Dollo's IGA. The advantage of the new store, besides being larger than the earlier ones and able to accommodate more customers, is that being on Highway 35, it will also serve tourists and cottagers passing through.

This is a success story that began almost 50 years ago, one that was not accomplished without its fair share of hardship. "My father was a grocer in Toronto so I grew up in the business. When my sister married and moved to Haliburton, her new husband gave her $100 to buy a fur coat so she could survive the winter. But instead of getting the coat, she bought a fruit and vegetable store. I helped her run that place for the five years before the war."

Determined to have his own business, Dollo came to Minden after being demobilized, bringing with him a war bride, Chris, and his brother Joe, and together they opened another fruit and vegetable store.

"We worked hard and things went well at that first store. We employed as many as ten people and in a good week we could sell two truck loads of produce - though of course, that amount dropped considerably in

Customers line up across the parking lot of the former IGA store, eager to take advantage of opening day specials in 1968. The business has relocated to new premises at the corner of Main Street and Highway 35.

4 stores - 40 years

Then in 1956, Pete and Joe opened their first IGA store in what is now Cox's Apparel. With two check-out counters, thirty employees and 3,000 square feet of floor space, it was a big step up. The building next door to the IGA was badly damaged in a fire in 1964 and the brothers lost a great deal of their stock to smoke and water damage that Christmas Eve, but the brothers were able to carry out repairs and in their 12 years at the site, they did well for themselves.

Business gradually improved over time until they had to move to the even larger store on Main Street at the edge of the village. It had 5,500 square feet of floor space and four check-out counters which have served their purposes for just under 20 years.

Pete and his new partner David, decided to build the largest and latest store on the highway where it might also attract people passing through.

Having lived in Minden for almost 40 years, Pete Dollo has made a place for himself and his business in the history of the area. He remembers when Hart Lodge was first built and he was around when construction began at the Wig-A-Mog Inn.

Like both those businesses, he's worked hard to get where he is, worked hard through forty years and four different stores. And he happily acknowledges there will be no more $18 days.

Kickers beat Gravenhurst 3-2

submitted

The Dixie Lee soccer team defeated the Gravenhurst Spartans 3-2 in Haliburton last Sunday.

Paul Milne scored first for the home team with a curving shot from the edge of the 18 yard box. At about the 20 minute mark Mike Hatkoski dribbled the ball deep into the right side of the Gravenhurst penalty area. His hard shot beat the goalie on the far side of the net.

Haliburton had a goal disallowed for an offside before Gravenhurst scored on a penalty shot awarded for a "hand ball". With about 5 minutes left in the half Gravenhurst tied the score with a shot from close in after Andy Shapiera, the Dixie Lee goalie, had made a diving save.

Gravenhurst played with the wind in the second half and were pressing forward until Dixie Lee scored on a very well executed play. Paul Milne controlled the ball at midfield and passed to Hans Walter who was overlapping on the left. He dribbled the ball past a full-back deep into the left corner where he delivered a cross to the far post. Lennie Johnston running in from the right headed the ball in.

This win gives Dixie Lee 7 points in 7 games. They have 3 wins against 3 losses and a tie. They also have 11 goals for and 11 against.

Next weekend, Dixie Lee will host their first International Oldtimers Tournament. On Saturday, June 12 in Haliburton Dixie Lee Oldtimers will play the Danish Oldtimers. Game time will be 3:30 p.m. At 5:00 p.m., Dixie Lee Juniors will play the West Rouge Blues. On Sunday, Muskoka Oldtimers will play the West Rouge Blues. On Sunday, Muskoka Oldtimers will play the Danes at a mutually agreed time, probably 12:00, and Dixie Lee Oldtimers will play West Rouge probably at 1:30.

The Dixie Lee team wish to thank Brian and Audrey Holden for making all the arrangements to host our old friends the West Rouge Blues and our eagerly anticipated new friends the Danish Oldtimers.

THINK BIG.

Our Kubota M-Series tractors are built for big jobs. They range from 45 up to 85 PTO horsepower. And with 4-wheel drive, they can easily pull implements you'd expect to find behind a much larger tractor.

These tractors are built with a strong Kubota diesel engine. A turbo-charged model is available for even more pulling power.

And while a Kubota is built to take on big work, it doesn't come with the purchase price, fuel bill and other operating expenses of a larger tractor.

See all the M-Series tractors. They could make a big difference in your farm income.

"I felt guilty," Constable Ladurantaye admitted as he recalled his first meeting with these ducklings, May 16. He accidentally struck the mother of the brood with his vehicle. He stepped in to rear the feathered orphans. After seven weeks of TLC, he brought the ducks to Rotary Park in Minden and released them Thursday. Guild news

by Shirley Hodgson

The summer sale this year most certainly is a great success. Last Thursday at the opening there were approximately 500 people. The "staff" that worked on Thursday night were really kept busy - which pleased many of the artists who attended.

One of the people that was at the opening could not get over how well everyone "listened" - there was a hush throughout the audience - they seemed to be in awe of the beautiful music and works of art which surrounded them.

Congratulations to all the winners of the awards for their excellent work. William James wrote, "The greatest use of life is to spend it for something that will out last it."

I purposely have not mentioned "Convergence" until this particular time as at least 10 people from this area will be attending - and they are becoming very excited. We have known about this for over a year - I would like to explain it as well as I can to the people of the "Guild".

This "Convergence" is the Biennial Conference of the American Handweavers Guild of America - which takes place in Toronto from July 17th until the 20th. This is the first time the Conference will be held outside the United States.

There will be over 2,300 weavers and spinners from all over the world who will gather to exhibit their crafts. The show will be hosted by the Ontario Handweavers and Spinners and the Ontario Crafts Council.

It will be held at the Metro Convention Centre in downtown Toronto. All conference proceedings, including seminars, panels, meetings and suppliers exhibits will be conveniently located at the Centre. Over 250 suppliers will feature the latest in weaving and spinning equipment, fibers and books.

Galleries in Toronto and Southern Ontario have mounted a multitude of exhibitions highlighting works that explore fibers historical roots, demonstrate its contemporary expression and hint at its future development. Tapestry, basketry, felting, fashions and spinning - all are featured.

Non-registrants to "Convergence" '86 may see the exhibitions only on Friday, July 18 from 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. and Saturday, July 20 from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Admission fee is $6.00.

Walking tours

The walking tours which will highlight the history of the town of Haliburton, will begin at the Government Dock on Head Lake at 10:30 a.m. every Tuesday and Thursday from June 24 until August 28. Good luck to the people involved in this new adventure.

On June 8 a bus load of rug hookers headed for Quebec City for two wonderful days. They visited many different points of interest - not only connected with rug hooking - but weaving, pottery and other crafts. On the way home they spent the night in Montreal where they were able to see more interesting things so that they certainly had four fun filled days together.

On Monday, June 16, the day of the tornado, 19 members of the rug hooking group met at the home of Marie Collison for a pot luck luncheon. This was the final meeting of the year and a good time was had by all.

They are planning a display area at the Summer Sale and will be demonstrating rug hooking Wednesday and Friday from 1 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. Several of the rug hookers will be taking summer courses at Trent University and a few of them will be taking courses at Burlington in September.

Feed wet hay

by Bill Baxter

A few weeks ago I wrote about early cutting of hay and the value of early cut alfalfa and grasses as a cattle feed. At that time I pointed out the dollars that could be made by cutting hay before it blooms.

But Mother Nature often intervenes. Heavy and frequent rainfalls over the past three weeks have delayed cutting and in many cases prevented the harvest of hay that was already down.

Whether that down hay is worth anything as a feed will depend largely on how badly the leaves were shattered or whether moulds grew in the wet weather.

Standing hay, on the other hand, lost up to 10% of both protein content and digestible energy due to maturity alone.

This protein and energy will have to be supplemented during the winter feeding period, using grain and/or soybean meal.

The problem facing livestock farmers is: how much protein and energy will I need to supplement?

The answer to this can only be provided by a test of the hay being fed and calculation of the requirements of the cattle.

A forage-testing kit can be borrowed from the county agricultural office, and staff will help to calculate a ration which will allow the cattle to be properly fed, with very little waste of purchased feed.

Your few dollars invested in this way could return thousands in production gains next winter and spring.

Trent-Severn report

The Haliburton Lakes are continuing a gradual decline after reaching peak levels last week in excess of the 10 year average by 7.5%. The total rainfall at Haliburton during the month of June was 136 mm which is approximately 50% more than normal. The higher than normal lake levels and river flows for this time of year can be directly attributed to the high precipitation amounts.

The Kawartha lake levels have dropped back to their respective summer operating ranges and the river flows have been reduced significantly allowing for the boater navigation advisory to be lifted on July 4. Normal summer flow conditions are expected to persist as long as the dry, windy weather stays with us.

Did you know?

by Jane Selbie

AIDS, or acquired immune deficiency syndrome, is a subject that we hear about frequently in the news. However further information about this infection is not readily available.

The Ministry of Health has produced information sheets that we have available in the Haliburton County Information Office (457-2733). These sheets include details covering detection, concerns of parents and teachers, women and general information.

This infection is a carrier form in which the symptoms may or may not be evident. It is caused by a virus called HTLV-III which if it gets into a person's blood may destroy certain white blood cells which when weakened impair the body's immune system. Physical examination and a number of tests are required to diagnose AIDS. The AIDS antibody test does not diagnose AIDS - it only shows if the virus has entered a person's blood stream. Many people are exposed to the virus, some actually get it in their bloodstream, some develop symptoms and still fewer go on to fully develop AIDS.

The symptoms are not specific but include: swollen lymph glands in the neck, armpit or groin, persistent night sweats, severe tiredness, loss of weight for no apparent reason and diarrhea. These symptoms are usually caused by other less serious illnesses. However, anyone who has several of these that do not disappear should visit their doctor.

Infected individuals, even those without symptoms, may be able to pass on the virus to others and should take necessary precautions. It is transmitted in four known ways: 1) certain kinds of sexual contact; 2) sharing contaminated needles; 3) transfusion of infected blood or blood products; 4) from an infected mother to an infant in the womb.

It is important to note that all blood donations in Canada are now being tested for antibodies to the AIDS virus before they are transfused.

You cannot get AIDS giving blood to Red Cross because needles used for medical purposes are sterile and used only once.

Weather

More rain is on the way. Why do ever do they guilty sound, when this they have to say? Vacationers want their weather fine, a healthy tan to gain. The golfers wish for sunshine; but we also need the rain. The picnic folk in "out of doors" prefer a cloudless sky. No heavy cloud with rain that pours for such would cause a sigh. A desert is created by days of endless sun. From early morning dawning until the day is done. But who is there in rightful mind who'd want to live in one? We never miss the water until the well goes dry. Let's hear no more complaining, whether showers or whether shine. A mixture's best for everyone, especially for those who'd dine. So come the sun or come the rain, our voices let us raise. In grateful thanks to Heaven above for rain or sunny days.

Ode to the Sublime

Last night I heard a choir of Angels
Singing their celestial Ode to Joy -
Beethoven's Ninth Symphony.
The world's greatest work performed
By a magnificent vocal choir
Conducted by the Master, Zubin Mehta, with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra
Playing their hearts out under his baton.
The tenor was the incomparable Placido Domingo
The baritone, Sherril Milnes, the mezzo Marilyn Horne
The soprano Leona Mitchell, singing their joyous sounds
To Liberty and to God.
Anyone who knows Beethoven, knows his is the work of a genius,
The greatest genius, far ahead of his time,
His ninth was the Ode to Joy
Is the ultimate in music.
When one hears the opening bars
One cannot help but feel the true meaning of the Work.
For it all-encompasses the spirit of Mankind. I quote -
'Joy, thou sparkling, shining spark of God
Daughter of Elysium
With fiery rapture Goddess
We approach thy shrine.
Your magic reunites those Whose stern custom has parted -
All men, will become brothers
Under your protective wing.
Let the man who has had the fortune
To be a helper to his friend
And the man who has won a noble woman
Join in our choir of jubilation
Yes, even if he holds but one soul
As his own, in all the world,
But let the man who knows nothing of this
Steal away and in sorrow.
Beethoven, who was deaf, exalts in Jubilation over this affliction and
His love for the world and for mankind.
It ends, 'Do you feel the creator's presence?
He must dwell beyond the Stars.'
Oh what privilege is ours
To have been blessed to hear such artistry
Among our midst.
He will not come this way again
But will live forever in the hearts of men
And this is still my creed
'His precious message destined to give
If men would heed, all men might live.'
Long live liberty and love -
Which we celebrate
And an end to hate
That which destroys us all!

senior league

by Pearl Lyle

by Pearl Lyle

Hello Readers! Summer is here at last, but it doesn't feel much like it.

Our Church Service Sunday night was conducted by Rev. Burgess and on Tuesday morning by Rev. Elliott of Minden Anglican Church.

We extend our sympathies to the families of Lily Miller, Isabelle Wilson, Frank Billings and Doris Vaughan who passed away since our last edition of Senior League.

Walter Ackerblade called on his sister Mrs. Buttery. Beatrice Taylor came to visit Lily Hogg.

Our Bazaar, Bake Sale and Strawberry Tea were very well attended. The draw for the afghan and pillow was won by Helen Burton of Haliburton. I am sorry to report Carl Dugan is in St. Joseph's Hospital undergoing surgery. We hope he will soon be well again. We sure miss him around here.

On Thursday the ladies from Lutterworth Pines brought the tea party in. It was very much enjoyed by all present. Chesel Nesbitt was in again to see his mother. We all sure like to have visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown accompanied by Nora Crego of Kinmount came to visit with Helen Brown and Pearl Lyle.

We are glad to have Edna Cowan back with us again and to see her feeling better right now. She is spending the weekend with her daughter Marie Baker.

Jean Hewitt was in again to see her mother and attend the Strawberry Tea. Doreen James called on Edith Welch Friday evening. Doreen James had her daughter Mary Ellen, her husband and two children with her for their visit with Edith.

Frank Wilkinson and his wife and son called on his grandmother Mrs. Lyle on Saturday. Also her granddaughter Coleen Hughes and her two children from Four Mile Lake called to see her.

Linda and Hans Buehler from Markham called on Lily Hogg.

Mabel and Alva Deacon with Mrs. Sutherland visited with Alice Todd over a cup of coffee.

Karen Kernohan of Oshawa visited with her parents Lorne and Eve Cox and had a nice visit with Annie Cox of Hyland Crest.

Dawn Elliott and boyfriend from Toronto visited her Grandmother Annie Cox on the weekend. Gerald Cox from Peterborough dropped in on Saturday for a rushed visit with his grandmother Annie Cox also.

A report has just come to me that Carl Dugan is recovering nicely from surgery.

I believe this is all the news for this time. Bye for now.

Volunteers are appreciated

by Donna Bailey

"Thank you" to our volunteers - Adele Barnes, Gail Barnhart, Connie Brittan, Helen Dugan, Marjorie Hansen, Helen and Ken Henderson, Jean and Bob Hollobon, Alice Martin, Ruby and Bill Mighton, Doris Moore, Grace Sipe, Betty and Max Strang for helping at the Kinsmen Home Show on June 13 and 14. It was deeply appreciated. Special thanks to Betty and Max Strang who also manned it during part of Sunday. Special thanks to Jean and Bob Hollobon who took the display up in their vehicle and took the display down.

We are pleased to announce the hiring of Gail Barnhart as our Project Coordinator for the Needs Assessment survey which will be conducted this summer. Cathy Tyler will be assisting Gail. This survey is an important one to Home Support as to our present programs - are they fulfilling the needs of our elderly and disabled persons, and for long range planning of Home Support - Meals on Wheels, Wheels to Meals, Home Help, Transportation and Fone-a-Friend, Friendly Visiting, and Drop-In Centre programs.

Gail has been working very diligently on a questionnaire for this purpose. It will be an over the telephone questionnaire as we do not have enough staff nor funding to do a house to house visitation. Please be looking for our Home Support and Drop-In Centre brochures in your mailbox in the near future.

Branch 129

by Gerald Irish

Another busy week has flown by. As Bluegrass gets closer, the pace becomes more and more hectic. Bookings for this festival are coming in quite rapidly. The advance sale price of twenty dollars per person is a really good deal. This entitles you to all the shows for the whole weekend and a campsite if you desire one. Book now and don't be disappointed. It's only a month away.

If enough entries are received, there will be a Bluegrass Amateur Contest on Sunday, August 3 at 2 p.m. in Head Lake Park. The winners of this contest will receive cash awards plus a chance to perform on the Bluegrass stage during the Festival. The deadline for entries is July 26. Entry forms can be obtained from Jim or Gerry at the Legion office.

Many other events are going on at your Legion before Bluegrass.

On July 12, at the Loyal Orange Lodge dance in the Legion, your Branch will be holding the draw for the beautiful oil painting done by George Cox. These tickets are only $1.00 each. Do you have yours?

The Presidents' Ball will be on July 19. Tickets are on sale now at $6.00 per person and they're selling rapidly. The six-piece Frank Howard orchestra will be providing the music for your dancing and listening pleasure. Wherever this group plays, they draw rave reviews.

During the evening, a hilarious comedy duo will entertain you and later in the night, a beautiful buffet lunch will be set out for you.

So, for only six dollars you get to dance, to be entertained by some very funny people, and to dine on a sumptuous buffet.

Don't forget the Blood Donor Clinic on July 22nd at your Legion.

Last Thursday, members of the Legion and Legion friends gathered in the small dining room to witness the initiations of eleven new Branch 129 Legion members. At a time when some Legion branches are facing declining membership, your Branch is growing steadily. The last mailing of the Bulletin had almost 800 copies going out.

On Saturday night the Club Room was packed to the doors for the Wine and Cheese party to enjoy the very popular Porcupine Lumber Company. During the evening, Mr. and Mrs.

This week's 50 - 50 draw winner was Phillip Findlay. Phil won $37.50.

"WHERE THE ACTION IS"

Seniors for games finals

by Bruce Armstrong

Last Friday at the Drop-In Centre, we catalogued the 35 registrations for Actifest '86 and the final tally is 33 Haliburton County senior contestants with 8 spousal reservations, and 1 Muskoka contestant with spouse, as well as our acting co-ordinator, Ev Stata. The District 11 breakdown will be 23 males and 21 females. Investigation continues into possible Haliburton Tartan crests and caps.

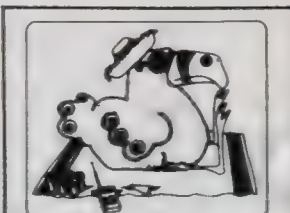

The final golf playdown was held on a rainy Minden course last Tuesday and after a very close match, Jack Burch lost out to Bill Frankish of Gravenhurst.

In this, probably my last column, I wish to consolidate a number of "Thank you's" for assistance rendered prior to, and during our 3 week activities schedule to qualify the 34 athletes mentioned above.

Thanks go to this newspaper for its excellent coverage, to the Rotary Club and Legion Branch 129 for subsidies, and again to the latter for the dart facilities, Warden Harry Davis and Rev. J.B. Spenceley for the opening ceremonies, Dysart and Stanhope Councils for the use of recreational facilities, the Minden Lawn Bowling Club, Carnarvon Bowling Lanes and PineStone Inn for adapting to our schedule so nicely; the West Guilford Recreation Association for their quick and positive response to our rain location emergency for the closing ceremonies, to the 5 households that trusted us with their barbecues, the 14 great convenors who also formed the planning committee, and acted as chefs, waiters, waitresses, etc., etc., the over 200 seniors who made the effort to participate in the 9 games, and last but not least, the Haliburton County Home Support Services Staff and Executive for their support and use of facilities.

I hope we do you all proud in Kitchener in August.

The summer blood donor is a rare bird.
Be one.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all the members of Hyland Crest Auxiliary for all their help for our very successful Strawberry Tea and also the staff of the Home.

Pearl Durant, President

We would like to thank everyone who helped to make our 25th Wedding Anniversary a day to remember. We really appreciate all the lovely gifts and cards we received. It sure was a nice feeling when so many friends and relatives came to the dance to help us celebrate. We will remember the good time we had and sure hope everyone else does also. Thanks to Mickey for the lunch, Lynn for the cake and everyone for the desserts, and Bandana for the music. Also thank you to you people who came for the fun and ended up doing some of the work. Sure glad you helped. Rick, Harold, Ron and Ann and Bill. A very special thank you to our family - Jill, Bill, Boomer, Lisa and Jason. We had a lovely time.

Bud & Gala Stamp

To the many friends of the late Ellen Knight, we would like to express our deepest gratitude for your love and kindness over the years, our special thanks for your prayers, messages of consolation, visits, memorial donations and food during our recent bereavement. To the staff of Hyland Crest for the loving and skillful care given our Mother, also to Drs. Lodenquai and Belch, we are greatly indebted. To Rev. James for his ministry with Mother, for being there when we needed him most, for his words of hope and comfort we are forever grateful. To Mr. and Mrs. Monk, Kirsten and Cameron, we would like to express our appreciation for giving an extra personal touch to the funeral arrangements. God bless you all. Sincerely,

Annetta Jackson & Ernice Warder

The executive of the Minden Curling Club wishes to thank those members who assisted in the recent Ride for Sight.

IN MEMORIAM

STAMP: In loving memory of our dear friend, Sid, who passed away July 11, 1985.

He was a flower too sweet for earth
Sent here but for a while
God marked him when He gave him life
And took him home with a smile.

Sadly missed but never forgotten

IN MEMORIAM

STAMP: In memories of our Dad - Sid Stamp. To hear your voice and see you smile
To sit with you and chat a while
And when I am sad and lonely
And everything goes wrong I hear you whisper softly
Cheer up and carry on.
A million times I've needed you
A million times I've cried
If my love could have saved you
You never would have died
If I could have one wish on the earth
And I know it would come true
I'd telephone to heaven
And ask to speak to you.

We love you, your sons

Greg and Vincent

IN MEMORIAM

STAMP: In loving memory of my precious husband Sid Stamp who passed away July 11, 1985.
You never said goodbye to me
You never saw the tears
But you left me beautiful memories
I will treasure through the years
I think of you in silence
I often speak your name
All I have are memories
And your picture in a frame
My heart still aches in sadness
My silent tears still flow
For what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know
Not a day do I forget you
In my heart you've always there
As it ends the first year.

Sadly missed by wife Elsie
